'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

ROUN DAND ROUND

Our 'Round 'N' 'Round this Christmas morning was written ten years and years ago by a person who wrote a beautiful, simple tale.

* * * *

* * * *

"And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

* * * *

"And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were sore afraid.

* * * *

"And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

* * * *

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

* * * *

"And this shall be the sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

* * * *

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

* * * *

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men.

* * * *

"And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

* * * *

"And they came with haste and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

* * * *

"And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

* * * *

"And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

* * * *

"But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.

* * * *

"And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them."

THESE THREE tykes, triplet sons of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rider of Seattle, figure that three heads are better than one when it comes to handling old St. Nick. They've hung up their stockings and evidently mean to await the old boy's descent and see that he gives them all a square deal.

Fire Fails to Halt Plans For Wedding

Fire marred plans for a Richmond telephone operator's New Year's day honeymoon when her coupe caught fire and was virtually destroyed as it stood in front of her home in El Cerrito yesterday.

Miss Frances E. Stark, 20, of 40 Park way, El Cerrito saw her car go up in smoke despite the efforts of the El Cerrito fire department to extinguish the blaze which was believed to have ignited from a short circuit.

Miss Stark planned to wed Thomas McDonald New Year's eve in the church of the Latter Day Saints in Berkeley and leave in the car for Jackson where the bridegroom-to-be is employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric company on a construction project.

The upholstery and entire inside of the car was practically destroyed. Only the charred body and tires remained.

Despite the mishap the couple will go through with their plans and proceed to Jackson where they will make their home while McDonald is at work as an engineer for his company there.

Hardy Scored For Pantages Release

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—Bitter criticism for the release of Mrs. Lois Pantages from her sentence of probation by Superior Judge Carlos N. Hardy was hurled by Buron Fitts, district attorney today.

The release from probation was given in the face of the tacit disapproval of probation officers, it was learned.

Mrs. Pantages was convicted in the summer of 1929 on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death of Juro Rokomoto, a Japanese gardner, who died following a collision with the Pantages car. Mrs. Pantages was put on probation following her conviction before Judge Hardy.

The probation department revealed that her record during her probationary period had been good but they made no recommendation for her release from the bond.

Application for the release was made that her name might be cleared for the marriage of her son with a prominent society leader. She also declared she wanted to travel for her health.

IDENTITY OF BANDIT IS TOLD

OAKLAND, Dec. 24.—Held as the killer of R. A. Frey, Oakland merchant, in an attempted downtown holdup Saturday, George "Cocky" Smith was identified last night by Jerry Metexas of Crockett as one of the men who hijacked a truck load of grape juice from him near Brentwood Nov. 27 and shot him in the shoulder.

Metaxas did not identify Smith as the one who fired the shot, which forced him to undergo treatment at a hospital for several weeks, but he was certain that he was one of the pair that beat him and drove away with the truck.

Smith has been identified by eight witnesses to the Oakland crime as one of the participants. All eight are being given police protection pending their appearance before the grand jury where an indictment will be sought charging Smith with the murder, as police feared they might be harmed by the gang of which the prisoner is an alleged member.

Deputy Sheriff J. M. Josephs of Contra Costa county accompanied Metaxas to this city, where he picked Smith out of a line of eight prisoners. Metaxas swore out a complaint charging highway robbery and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder today.

Metaxas accompanied by J. F. Lawand and George Ryia of Reedley was returning from the former's ranch near Reedley early the morning of Nov. 27 when they saw two automobiles parked across the highway near Brentwood. Outmaneuvering the cars the truck speeded up and was fired upon by the pursuing cars.

The truck was finally overtaken and four men jumped to th erunning board where they beat the two companions of Metaxas with the butts of their revolvers and shot the Crockett man. The men then drove away with the truck and its load of grape juice.

Frey, the Oakland merchant succumbed to the gunshot wound inflicted by the taller of two men who attempted to rob him while he was carrying $2500 to his place of business.

Smith has been identified by three of the eight witnesses as the one who fired the shot, while others have said he was one of the two men in the holdup.

Smith was arrested in San Francisco in a soft drink parlor following the receipt of a tip from underworld sources. A later tip revealed that the machine which the two were alleged to have used was parked in a San Francisco garage.

Police took charge of the car, which was positively identified by some of the witnesses as the auto in which the two men drove away from the scene of the Oakland crime.

Expression of thanks was made by Miller last night for the cooperation given this postoffice by citizens of the city who mailed and shopped early.

L. A. BANK IS ROBBED OF $6000

WEST LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—UP—Three robbers staged a daring daylight holdup of a branch of the Security First National Bank here today and escaped with $6000 in cash.

The bandits waylaid Husson H. Rhodes, the janitor, and forced him to open the door to the bank. Then they struck him on the head, bound him and placed him in a rear room.

As the eight employes came to work, each was met at the door and bound with rope.

George R. Kingdon, manager, arrived while the robbery was under way. He became suspicious of the commotion inside and did not enter, running instead to a telephone, where he called Sawtelle police.

A police squad arrived at the bank a short time after the bandit trio had disappeared in a coupe whose license plates indicated it belonged to Ruth Taylor of Alameda, Cal. Police said they believed the car was stolen.

Employes said the bandits appeared "tough" and threatened to kill anyone who made a noise.

FOOD GIVEN TO NEEDY IN CITY

Bread, the staff of life, will be supplied in abundance to the more than 200 needy families of this city today when Christmas baskets are distributed through the efforts of service organizations of Richmond, who have combined their efforts for that purpose.

Following the announcement Tuesday that bread was the only substantial lacking in the baskets being prepared under direction of George Sanderson for the city's needy, Harry Bottger, of Mammy's Place, ordered 100 loaves sent to headquarters of the workers for distribution.

The order will furnish a complete and full basket for every family whose plight was declared necessary for the relief work of the committees.

Aid Given

Cash and donations of food and clothing from scores of other Richmond residents who have failed to make their identity known also helped to make the drive to supply the needy family in the city a complete success.

George Zane, proprietor of a Richmond meat market and store was also one of the largest contributors to the cause, when he gave enough meat to take care of 60 baskets. Grocery orders were also given by Zane.

Much of the materials given to the cause were in the homes of the citizens last night, and there was no worry on the part of parents where they would get their Christmas dinner to feed the little ones.

Red Cross Aids

The American Red Cross performed a feat that had not been accomplished in previous years, when it devoted its entire time to the aiding of civilians. The cooperative work was so well taken care of in the joint committees working under Sanderson that the veterans of the various wars were supplied with their wants through the efforts of their respective agencies.

Appeals for help were coming into the home of George Sander-

BOOK' LEGGERS LATEST FROM FRANCE

PARIS, Dec. 24.—UP—All that is bootlegged into the United States from abroad is not rum, dresses and perfumery. Books, dirty books the American censors call them, are a heavy item among illegal entries into the United States, hints the bulletin of Maison du Livre.

Since the war French book exports have increased phenomenally, especially to the United States. While giving the United States credit for improved taste in reading, it is hinted here a large share of the imports, mostly illegal, comprise books banned in America.

Unexpurgated editions of James Joyce's "Ulysees" and D. H. Lawrence's "Lady Chatterley's lover" are among the best sellers. Every book store in Paris carries window exhibits of prominent "banned" books.

Figured in pounds, French book exports have increased an average of about 300,000 pounds yearly since the war. The estimated exportatiton for 1929 is around 16 million volumes. United States, Great Britian, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany and Latin America are the greatest purchasers of French books.

Strangely enough the League of Nations has served to increase the popularity of the French tongue and to increase the number of books which are bought and read in French. French is still considered the diplomatic language, and with varying accents is spoken in nearly nine out of ten speeches made before the assembly and the council of the league.

The majority of allegedly "indecent" books smuggled into the United States are taken through the customs under the decent covers of some author to whom the American censors do not object.

Christmas Has Christmas Fete

CHRISTMAS, Ariz., Dec. 24.—UP—It is always Christmas in this little mining town, but today Santa Claus usurped King Copper's throne for the brief space of a public celebration at the huge Christmas mine.

Mine and smelter workers, who together make up practically the entire population, joined in the annual observance of Yuletide by stringing colored lights around the workings of the mine and decorating a nearby tree.

It was the 26th celebration of Christmas since the town won official recognition as such, and attained the dignity of a place in the postal guide. The town is built around one of the richest copper mines in Arizona, discovered one Christmas day at the dawn of the century.

As the mine grew in importance a branch line of the old Arizona and Eastern railway was built from Winkleman, Ariz., and application was made to the government for townsite patents. Pioneers of the town say these patents arrived on Christmas day in 1904. At any rate the town dates from that time and it has had a post office since June 17, 1905.

Money Moves More Freely

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—UP—Money in circulation, increasing during November by $178,000,000 over the previous month, has continued to show a gain and December should top all months in 1930 in that respect, it has been indicated by official figures at the treasury.

Cash flowing from hand to hand in November totaled $4,660,621,000. That figure is $369,000,000 below that for the abnormal month of November, 1929. While the circulation for December is expected to be below that of the peak sum of about $5,000,000,000 established under the crush of Christmas buying last year, experts said a sufficient volume would be in evidence to assure a favorable comparison with the years before 1929.

Trainmen Switch Annual Convention

CLEVELAND, Dec. 24.—Striking employes of four downtown hotels was today given as the reason for the transferrance of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers convention to Toronto, Canada.

The gathering to be held next June will bring some $700,000 to Toronto, it was estimated.

Three weeks ago the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen transferred their proposed convention from Cleveland to Houston, Tex., because of the strike. Union hotel employes quit several months ago when employers tried to force them to sign individual contracts despite their union affiliations.

Unions will endeavor to keep all conventions out of Cleveland as long as the hotel strike continues, it was predicted.

English Steamer Reported Aground

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 24.—Aground five miles north of the Jupiter light, the British freighter Jameson reported at 7:55 a. m. (EST) that it would need no aid until a coast guard cutter on its way to the scene, arrived.

The steamer Dorchester in nearby waters received the information when its skipper radioed the Jameson regarding its plight. The Jameson built in Newcastle, Eng., had a gross tonnage of 3585. It is registered in London.

Riots Break Out In German City

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—Crowds of unemployed clashed with the police today in strikes which broke out in various sections of the labor quarter. Police used their clubs free'y to quell the disturbanuces.

"We're hungry" was the cry that was most frequent during the disturbances. The entire force was on duty to prevent occurrances of communist uprisings.

War Scored In Kellogg Speech

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—UP— The world's statesmen are intent on an era of peace, said Frank B. Kellogg winner of the Nobel peace prize, in a Christmas eve interview here tonight.

Kellogg, 74 year old former secretary of state was enroute to his home in St. Paul, Minn., to celebrate Christmas. He recently returned from Europe where he sat as a judge in the world court and received the Nobel prize.

Talk of another war "is irresponsible," he said, while the idea that war would relieve unemployment is "mistaken."

"Many of the ills we are now suffering," he added, "are incident to the last war. In fact I am very doubtful whether western civilization would survive another such calamity.

"Unemployment is naturally incident to these economic periods of depression, but we have absolute confidence that the industry and the genius of the peoples of the world will work these problems out."

JACK OAKIE IS STAR IN SEA FILM HERE

And when Jack gets his "Sea Legs" things swim along in a merry-merry, razzle-dazzle series of wisecracks and cracking action. "Sea Legs," the new fun-and-foolishness romance of "America's Joy Friend," will open a roaring engagement today at the Fox California Theater.

George Marion, Jr., whose wise-cracking dialogue has created a new American lingo, wrote "Sea Legs" especially for Jack Oakie, and how Oakie slings the Marion slang in "Sea Legs" is something to hear. Advance reports hail "Sea Legs" as a life preserver: Makes old men young and grandmothers bob their hair.

Oakie, a doughty gob on one of Uncle SSam's battle cruisers, goes to sleep the pride of the fleet, and wakes up to find him substituting aboard a strange battleship for a wealthy young millionaire, named O'Brien, whose lawyer, Harry Green, has picked on Oakie to serve O'Brien's compulsory term in the navy. And the navy, of which the boat on which Oakie is employed is the sole ship, belongs to a country of which Oakie has never before heard.

But the captain has six beautiful daughters, and they all live on board ship. Lillian Roth is one of these beautiful daughters, and, when Oakie gets mixed up with this charming comedienne of "Animal Crackers" "The Love Parade" and "Honey," the joy starts sprouting.

Then to make the fun all the more furious, Eugene Pallette is also on board throwing out the laff-'ines.

"Sea Legs" is entirely a laughing matter. It fairly breathes the salt sea air and the freshness of youthful pep. Created for Oakie, the ever-smiling smart cracker, its a joyous jamboree of nautical nonsense, with gobs and gobs and gobs of grins.

Santa Is Sent Back To Asylum

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 24.—UP—No, Virginia, there isn't a Santa Claus. He went back to the insane asylum.

Albert Stats might still be parading the streets of Jersey City as Santa, patting litt'e children on their innocent heads and warming his chest with his borrowed whiskers, had not some kill-joy telephoned police that he really belonged in Secaucus, where there is an insane asylum.

Today Albert is parading his finery under the watchful eye of his pet keeper, who may or may not believe in Santa Claus

SPANISH WINE MAKERS WATCH U. S. WETS

MADRID, Dec. 24.—UP—Spain's wine producers are not being misled about the possibility of the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment in the United States. But they hope that if the Volstead Act ever is changed the alcoholic content of wines will be made high enough to permit exportation of their greatest wine—sherry.

Sherry tests about 17 percent alcohol. While that may seem high even to those who advocate light wines and beers the Spanish wine interests point out that it is relatively low, for brandies and cognacs test about 40 percent, while whiskey tests about 60 percent.

Should the United States permit drinks with a content of four percent alcohol there would be little benefit to Spain. Spanish table wines test about 12 percent, and its so-called "generous" wines are about 17 percent.

There is no prospect of any concerted drive by Spanish liquor interests in lobbying for modification of the Volstead Act, or for obtaining business in case it should be modified, but they are individually following the American situation very closely.

All the big firms, of course, have important branch offices in Cuba, which can serve as the source of supply to the United States—if occasion should ever rise.

Merry Xmas Starts Visit With Relatives

The special interest of Merry Christmas in the C'ouses was traceable to the fact that she was their daughter, born 19 years ago on Christmas day.

"I wouldn't mind so much being called Merry Christmas the year around if I had just been born on some other day, so I would not miss out on birthday presents," said Miss Clouse, a student at the state college here.

Miss Clouse's regrets were more than matched by those of Mary Christmas, an Indianapolis officer worker

"Believe me, my name is a big brother and I'll be glad to keep under cover Christmas day with friends and relatives and escape the 'wisecracks' that are showered on me from all directions at this time of the year," said Miss Christmas

"With a name like mine, you are taken as a joke wherever you go. You can't cash a check unless you are well known and hardly anyone will believe you are who you are."

Many Killed In Argentine Quake

CAFAYATE, Salta Province, Argentina, Dec. 24.—UP—A violent earthquake in Salta province, northern Argentina, caused more than a score of deaths and did widespread damage to property today.

Early casualty list incomplete and unconfirmed, placed the dead at 85 at LaPoma, center of the shock. Seventy were reported injured there.

Reports from elsewhere in the province said 20 persons had been killed. The number of injured was undetermined.

Many houses were destroyed. Buildings disappeared into broad gaps that opened suddenly in the earth.

France Faced By Problem In Housing

PARIS, Dec. 24.—UP—The city of Paris and the republic of France have both turned landlords and are busy constructing imposing new apartment houses in and around Paris.

Before 1935 it is estimated that nearly 100,000 new apartments will be completed, but already experts are predicting that the housing crisis will be just as bad. Apartments in Paris are at a premium.

Under a law sponsored by Louis Loucheur 5651 apartments comprising 2, 3, 4 and 5 rooms were placed under construction and will be ready for occupancy at the end of next year. Before the Loucheur law went into effect the various departments of the City of Paris had already started construction on 17,893 apartments which are now being finished and occupied.

In all it is estimated there are 55,000 apartments now under construction either by the city or the estate, and another 45,000 will be started soon. The majority of these are apartments of two and three rooms rented at low prices to laborers.

Early Celebration Brings Injuries

SAN FRANCISCI, Dec. 24.—UP—Norman Erickson, 11, and his brother Earle, 12, will spend Christmas in a hospital because they disobeyed Santa Claus. The boys received a pair of roller skates for Christmas but wouldn't wait and tried them out in advance. Result: Both fell suffering compound fractures of the wrists.

BOOK STARTS OLD FIGHT AGAIN

PARIS, Dec. 24.—UP—The bitter internal quarrel which the Foch and Clemenceau books evoked has been reopened again, after having had barely time to die out, by the publication of Colonel Herbillon's valuable historical memories, "From the general-in-chief to the government," which goes behind World War scenes with no attempt to mince words.

Colonel Herbillon has praise for both Foch and Clemenceau, and wholly disregarding Pershing, Diaz, Jacques, Haig and other great figures of the Allies, declares that the only outstanding figures of the hectic four years were Frenchmen—Joffre, Millerand, Petain, Gallieni, Foch, Poincare and Clemenceau.

He accuses parliament of having drawn out the war, with millions of men sacrificed in battle by playing politics. It was not the fault of parliament, he insists, that France did not lose the war many months before victory finally came.

Among the pictures he paints is one of the rout of parliament. During the short period of 1917 when General Nivelle was in command of the French army, a group of parliamentarians went to the front on an inspection tour.

The Germans opened a sudden offensive. Impressionable radical and socialist deputies rushed back to Paris with alarmist reports of terrific losses and crushing defeat. In fact the French troops stopped the Germains without great loss.

Praise for the efforts of Sanderson in securing the smooth working co-operation of the various relief agencies was given in large measure last night by every agency and individual connected with the relief work.

Sanderson is the veterans' service officer and serves without pay. He is a retired navy man.

The American Red Cross donated 60 children gifts and prepared 15 presents for men. Practically every other organization in the city has done similar work.

Richmond Boy Scout troops did their share in making an enjoyable Christmas for the needy, when they distributed gifts throughout yesterday under the supervision of their respective scoutmasters.

Bootleggers Of Yule Trees Hit

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 24.—UP—Christmas tree bootleggers met poor times this year, State Forester Grover M. Conzet said today. Close surveillance of the north Minnesota woods prevented trees being cut without permits. Vigorous prosecution of offenders also discouraged tree racketeers, Conzet said.

Grant Declares He's Innocent

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—UP—Lincoln U. Grant, business manager for Mrs. Rosetta Baker, club woman and actress, who was strangled to death in her Nob Hill apartment last week, issued a statement today inviting investigation that he said would prove beyond any doubt that he was not aware of the cause of her death.

"They are talking about me and a store room I have at my wife's house," Grant explained. "They can have the key to it anytime they want it. I'm not hiding anything there or any place else. They can look in my trousers pocket if they want to."

The business manager also commented about court papers filed by relatives of Mrs. Baker contesting the will in which she disposed of an estate valued at $500,000 and charged that she was "influenced" by Grant.

"Its a good thing that she didn't leave me anything as an heir," he said. "They probably would have me arrested by now. Mrs. Baker wanted to leave me some money but I wouldn't let her.

"I kept her from putting in her will certain reasons, too, why some of her relatives were cut off. It never would have done for these things to come out in print."

As This Goes On It Gets Worse

RACINE, Wis., Dec. 24.—UP—Annually, at this season, friends of Mrs. Mary Christmas, Racine housewife, use the same old greeting, she said today.

It is: "Merry Christmas, Mary Christmas, is "Happy New Year still following you around?"

SPECIAL YULE RITES FOR CHURCHES

holy music from "Noel" was also sung .

Father Casey sang the mass. Twelve altar boys aided in the service. Miss Louise Colombo was the organist. Members of the choir were: Mrs. H. Hodnapp, Angelina Beno, Agnes Bonin, Emily Apostolo and Mr. Pierce.

A special choir under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Bennett furnished music at the high mass celebrated at St. Mark's Catholic church at midnight, while the Rev. Father Kierdorf of the Redemptionist order of Oakland delivered the sermon. Four masses will be held this morning at 7, 8, 9 and 10:30.

A midnight mass was held at St. Paul's church in San Pablo with a vested choir furnishing the music.

Christmas carols were heard at several Richmond homes early this morning when a group of the younger folks of the First Presbyterian church visited the shut-ins and friends to bring them Christmas cheer.

A 6:30 a. m. candle light service is to be given at the Grace Lutheran church today with the vested choir singing songs that have become famed for their simplicity. A large gathering of worshippers were planning last night to attend the impressive services which will be in charge of Rev.. Guy L. Hudson.

"O Little Town of Bethlehem" will be sung by Mrs. V. Claus C. Nissen as a feature part of the gathering.

Tom Mix Wife Granted Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—UP—Tom Mix, hero of fast riding western films, twirled a revolver on his fingers and freightened his wife and was ugly and vicious as well, Mrs. Victoria Forde Mix testified when she obtained a divorce in superior court today.

She said that when Mix returned in October after a circus tour he remained at home only two days. Illness of their daughter, Tomasina, 8, made his presence advisable and Mrs. Mix said she located her husband after a five day search.

"What about the gun incident?" asked her attorney Le Roy Edwards.

"He took his gun out and spun it around his finger," she said.

"Did it frighten you "

"Why yes, it was loaded."

Mrs. Mix said that she was greatly humiliated when they took a number of guests to Ensenada on the actor's yacht and the cowboy deserted the party there, returning to Los Angeles by automobile. She said Mix became quarrelsome and vicious.

Merry Xmas to the Industrial World!

Richmond bids a Merry Christmas to the industrial world and invites that world—all of it— to come here and see what we have to offer in the way of manufacturing advantages.

Take a large area of flat land, border it with miles of waterfront, bisect it with rail and highway system, season with a good old fashioned cooperation and community go-getting spirit, and you will have a pretty good place for a manufacturer to install a Pacific coast plant.

That's Richmond!

Major industries of the country have recognized our local advantages and others are certain to do so in the near future. Richmond has something to sell which is so concrete, so outstanding and so superior to the advantages of other coast cities that its progress in the years to come should be spectacular in the extreme.

Local residents should visit the inner harbor and see with their own eyes the rapid progress being made on the new Ford plant. The great mass of steel frame rising there is the symbol of our new prosperity.

So the Chamber of Commerce, which has had and will continue to have a leading part in all forward-looking developments, sends out a Christmas greeting to all industrial minded executives to visit Richmond, study Richmond, locate in Richmond.
